Headteacher: Antoinette Goldwater

Dear Families,

Thank you so much for your support this term with all your children's learning. They are continuing to make us all proud and have worked extremely hard.

We enjoyed a special assembly yesterday and to see so many friends and families join us. We thought about the important messages at this time of year. We talked about the "unwrappable" gifts of warmth, shelter, peace, joy and love. I hope your child is able to share their thoughts with you.

What follows is a selection of great photos of our children over the last couple of weeks, I hope you enjoy them!

We know the school holidays can be a difficult time for some families and we wanted to remind you about the Enfield Educational Psychology Service Telephone Support Line (TSL). This offers parents an opportunity to talk to a member of the Educational Psychology Service about any concerns they might have in relation to their child.

Enfield Psychology Service

Telephone support line for parents and carers

Enfield EP Service is offering Enfield parents and carers the opportunity to speak to a member of the Educational Psychology Service (EPS) about a concern or issue they may have in relation to their child.

Educational Psychologists are professionals concerned with the development, learning and social and emotional wellbeing of children and young people. Issues we can help you to think about include:

- ▶ Learning
- ▶ Emotions (e.g. fears and worries, low mood, anger)
- ▶ Transitions at school and home
- ▶ Parenting
- ▶ Resource seeking
- ▶ Signposting to appropriate services

Calls can be booked between 9.30am and 4.30pm Monday to Friday.

If you have internet access, please fill in the online form here to request a phone call.

If you don't have access to the internet, please call us to request a phone call.

0208 379 2000

We will do our best to respond to your request within ten working days.

A telephone consultation is not a formal referral to our service.
