Dear Families,

I hope you had a lovely half term break and managed to get some quality family time.

Before half term we had so much exciting learning going on and I am delighted to share with you more of the work undertaken by our School Councillors.

As part of Enfield’s Quieter Neighbourhoods Project, a team came to school to meet, work with and learn from our children about what matters to them in our community.

Enfield Council were extremely impressed with the data our school council had collected for them, no other school had gone to those lengths. They also commented on their fantastic behaviour and the contributions they had brought to the workshop. The data and feedback will be strongly used in all upcoming Enfield council meetings to make changes within the area.

The final report will be published on the project

Well done, School Councillors – making a difference in our community!

In other news, I would like to alert you that during the Easter holiday break we are hoping to run another HAF holiday club, led by Coach Kevin and his team with Effective Transition. Our planned dates are for Tuesday 2nd April to Friday 5th April. Save the dates! Confirmation will follow soon.

Our book recommendations this week...

Our first recommendation this week comes from Hatice in Purple Class, who went to the library with her sister during half term and borrowed not only this lovely book but more! Her recommendation is When I'm Big by Ella Bailey.

Jamela's Dress by Niki Daly and Looking for Atlantis by Colin Thompson have been recommended anonymously! I found them waiting for me on the bench outside my office and they are two fantastic recommendations!

Thank you to all our recommenders!!!

Hello everyone,
I hope you all had a fantastic half term. Make sure to share with your teachers all of the experiences and exciting things that you did over the week.
I know that some of you had fun making pancakes to celebrate Pancake Day!

Just a heads up that World Book Day is coming up. Your teachers will be giving you more information about this next week. We are excited to celebrate this day and for you to showcase your costumes.

Sports Personality of the week!

This week Sport's Personality of the week is Shuab (Blue)

First of all, this week Shuab had a great PE lesson on Tuesday (which was also his birthday as he turned 7). Blue class started working on different sending and receiving techniques and this week focused on rolling. Mr. Samuel was extremely impressed with Shuab's attitude whilst participating in different rolling games and activities. In fact that is not the only thing Shuab has impressed Mr. Samuel with. Over the past year Shuab's behaviour and attitude to learning has improved massively; he has become very helpful by asking Mr. Samuel if he needs help setting up equipment for his PE lessons or carrying and lifting equipment in and around the school. His overall interest in sports has also increased and Mr. Samuel can't wait to see how he continues to excel in his PE lessons throughout the rest of the year.

A big well done to you Shuab, we are all so proud of you! Keep up the outstanding work!

Attendance Success!

This week the class with the best attendance at 99.50% is... LILAC class.

Well done to them!

Have a lovely weekend and see you on Monday!

Yours sincerely,
